SECTION V

Organization and Staff

The commissioner has designated the director of the Property and Casualty Division of the Kentucky Department of Insurance as the administrator of the Kentucky Mine Subsidence Insurance Fund. The administrator will choose a manager to handle the day to day operation of the fund.

SECTION VI

Mandatory Insurer Participation

1. Every insurer writing a property insurance policy on any structure located in a county that has become a “qualified location” shall include in the policy an endorsement of coverage against loss or damage to the structure arising from coal mine subsidence.
2. Coverage for coal mine subsidence shall not be included in any policy:
 - (A) covering a structure in (1) an exempt location or (2) an eligible location which has not been “qualified” by approval of the fiscal court;
 - (B) if the applicant or insured has waived his right to the coverage in writing. A copy of the “Waiver Form” is attached as Exhibit 2.
3. No insurer nor any of its agents shall require, as a condition to the issuance of any policy of basic property insurance, that the applicant waive his right to obtain mine subsidence coverage.

SECTION VII

Coverage Forms

Insurers shall provide the mine subsidence coverage required by KRS Chapter 304, Subtitle 44, using forms that have been filed with and approved by the Department of Insurance. Such forms shall not be changed unless approved by the Department of Insurance.

SECTION VIII

Income

1. Premium Income:

The continued eligibility of the mine subsidence program was contingent upon the program being state-administered and becoming self-sustaining. The program became self-sustaining on July 1990.

2. Investment Income:

The federal grant monies were used in order that the mine subsidence fund could be established and the program could become self-sustaining by July 1, 1990.

During the start up, mine subsidence premiums went toward building the fund's capital.

3. Dwelling Structures (one- to four-family units)

The estimated annual premium income for dwelling structures is in direct relation to the premium rate, number of participating dwellings and the average amount of coverage per dwelling structure.

A premium table was established that provides premium rates for insurance values of $50,000 or less in $10,000 increments up to $300,000, the maximum coverage amount for the mine subsidence insurance. The premium rates are $10.00 for $50,000 or less and increase in increments of $2.00 for each $10,000 of coverage up to $60.00 for $300,000 coverage. See Premium Table Exhibit 1.

The premium rate table was established by estimating loss frequency, average size and administrative cost including adjusting expense.

The number of dwelling structures expected to participate in the program was established by the number of households in the counties eligible for the mine subsidence insurance.

Additional Living Expense up to $25,000 is in addition to the maximum $300,000 coverage limit for structures. This limit applies to residential risks only. See KRS 304.44-030 (2).

Non-Dwelling Structures (commercial structures)

The estimated annual premium income for the commercial structures is in direct relation to the premium rate, number of participating commercial structures and the average amount of coverage per structure.

A premium table was established providing premium rates for insurance values of $50,000 or less in $10,000 increments up to $300,000 being the maximum coverage amount for the mine subsidence insurance. The premium table rates increase in $2.00 increments from $15.00 for $50,000 or less coverage to $65.00 for $300,000 coverage. See Exhibit 1.

The premium rate table was established by estimating loss frequency, average size claim and administrative cost, including claim-adjusting expense.

Farm Dwellings and Outbuildings

Dwelling structure rates and minimum premium apply to all farm dwellings. For farm outbuildings with a farm dwelling already insured, each outbuilding is to be rated using the rate of $2.00 for each $10,000 increment of coverage. For farm outbuildings without a farm dwelling, rate the highest valued outbuilding using the rates and minimum premium for farm dwellings. The remaining outbuildings should be rated as above, $2.00 for each $10,000 increment of coverage.

Mobile Homes

Mobile homes and attachments are ineligible for mine subsidence coverage.

SECTION IX

Reinsurance

1. Every insurer shall enter into a reinsurance agreement with the administrator acting on behalf of the fund whereby the insurer agrees to cede and the fund agrees to accept a 100 percent quota share of all mine subsidence coverage written up to a maximum liability limit of $325,000 for each risk assumed. The maximum liability limit includes $300,000 for structures and $25,000 for 'additional living expense.' Cessions made by the insurer within the coverage limits shall relieve the insurer of all liability for loss stemming from claims made by its policyholders under such policies of mine subsidence insurance. Acceptance of such cessions by the administrator shall not create any legal liability. The fund shall be solely liable for the ceded coverage and shall be entitled to any profits earned and shall bear any losses incurred from such business.
2. In order for the fund to be liable to an insurer for reinsurance of a mine subsidence claim the insurer must provide mine subsidence coverage using policy and endorsement forms approved by the administrator as being in compliance with this plan.
3. A ceding commission of 30 percent will be allowed only on the gross rate portion of the premium charged policyholders. Any portion of the premium attributed to municipal taxes or state premium surcharge shall be subject to the rules and regulations otherwise governing such transactions.
4. Accounting for premiums and losses arising from business written by the insurer and ceded to the fund shall be on forms prescribed by the administrator. A copy of the prescribed "Quarterly Report Form" is attached as Exhibit 4.
5. An insurer may, but is not required to, write mine subsidence coverage in excess of the limits provided by the fund. The fund shall have no liability to the insurer or its insured for any amount of coverage written in excess of its statutory authority.
6. In the event of loss under a policy providing excess coverage, the insurer shall be liable under the terms of its policy to its insured for any covered excess portion regardless of whether or not the primary portion of the loss (within the limits of liability of the fund) is collectible from the fund.

SECTION X

Underwriting

1. The administrator may adopt underwriting rules for use with its rate classification system and manual of rates. Such rules shall be applied by the insurer in determining acceptance or rejection of the risk for mine subsidence coverage only. The insurer may apply its own underwriting rules in determining acceptance, rejection, or cancellation of its policy of basic property insurance and its decision shall control the disposition of the mine subsidence coverage regardless of the fact that the structure may qualify for mine subsidence coverage under the rules of the administrator.
2. The administrator shall review the rating structure and adopt such changes subject to the approval of the commissioner. The commissioner shall maintain a rating structure, which is neither excessive, inadequate nor unfairly discriminatory. Rate structure is expected to cover all losses and expenses to be incurred during the succeeding year, and include a reserve for unexpected contingencies.
3. At the administrator's discretion, an actuary will review and evaluate premium rates. The actuary will examine and analyze loss reserves, premium collections, claim adjustments, and any and all other aspects affecting the financial condition of the fund. No insurer shall use any classification plan or manual of rates for mine subsidence except those adopted and approved by the administrator for the use of all insurers.

SECTION XI

Claims Procedures

1. The insured will report a claim directly to the insurer.
2. The insurer will undertake all claims adjusting tasks and shall retain a licensed professional civil engineer to investigate suspected mine subsidence claims.
3. After the insurer has made a payment to its insured, the insurer shall remit to the administrator a "proof of reinsured loss," including a copy of their complete claim file, draft and settlement papers, including any subrogation receipt, for reimbursement from the fund.
4. Right of Subrogation KRS 304.44-110.
 - A. All insurers issuing mine subsidence coverage shall retain the right of subrogation.
 - B. The administrator shall retain the right of subrogation.
 - C. The insurer shall include in its claim reports an itemized list of losses in subrogation and shall remit to the fund all monies, less expenses, recovered as the result of subrogation actions.

SECTION XII

Operation

1. The administrator shall have the authority to oversee and supervise the daily operations of the fund either directly through employees, or through a person engaged for that purpose, or indirectly through facilities obtained by contract. In either event, the administrator shall recover costs, whether incurred directly or indirectly, from the fund.
2. The administrator shall segregate all monies received for and on behalf of the fund from any other source of monies received. The administrator may divide the fund into operations categories in order to maximize investment return on those portions not needed in liquid form for daily operation.

SECTION XIII

Accounting and Investment Procedures

1. The insurer shall submit quarterly a statement of mine subsidence premium transactions to the administrator on the prescribed form. The Quarterly Report Form prescribed by the administrator is attached as Exhibit 4.
2. The administrator may submit an annual report of all mine subsidence premium and claim transactions to the commissioner. Interim reports will be made upon request of the commissioner.
3. Two accounts will be established: one to accommodate the mine subsidence premium income account and one to accommodate investment account.

Premium Income Account

The fund will generate dollars as mine subsidence insurance policies are written. As premiums are forwarded to the insurers, 70 percent of each premium dollar will be forwarded to the Kentucky Department of Insurance and deposited into the Mine Subsidence Insurance Premium Income Account.

Investment Account

The administrator will review the premium income account monthly and will determine the amount of funds not needed in liquid form for daily operation of the fund. Immediately upon such determination, the administrator will advise the Finance Office of Financial Management to invest the specified amount. The report will include the date and amount of funds transferred from the premium account to the investment account, the type of investment made, maturity date, and amount of interest earned. The records will maintain current and past balances and transaction information.

The 1986 Kentucky General Assembly gave the Department of Insurance authority to restrict all interest earned from mine subsidence premiums exclusively to benefit the mine subsidence insurance fund. See KRS 304.44.115.

II. REINSURANCE

As of the effective date of this agreement, the insurer agrees to cede and the fund agrees to accept a 100 percent quota share of all mine subsidence coverage written up to a maximum liability limit of $325,000 for each risk assumed. The maximum liability limit includes $300,000 for structures and $25,000 for “additional living expense.” Cessions made by the insurer within the coverage limits shall relieve the insurer of all liability for losses stemming from claims made by its policyholders under such policies of mine subsidence insurance.

Acceptance of such cessions by the administrator shall not create any legal liability. The fund alone shall be liable for the ceded coverage and it alone shall be entitled to any profits earned and shall bear any losses incurred from such coverage. The fund shall pay insurers for losses which occurred in qualified locations, and in no event shall the fund have any liability to the insurer for any losses occurring in exempt locations or in locations which are not qualified locations.

In order for the fund to be liable to an insurer for reinsurance of a mine subsidence claim, the insurer must provide the mine subsidence insurance coverage using policy and endorsement forms approved by the administrator as being in compliance with this plan.

A ceding commission of 30 percent will be allowed only on the gross rate portion of the premium charged policyholders. Any portion of the premium attributed to municipal taxes or state premium surcharge shall be subject to the rules and regulations otherwise governing such transactions.

Accounting for premiums and losses arising from business written by the insurer and ceded to the fund shall be on forms prescribed by the administrator.

An insurer may, but is not required to, write mine subsidence coverage in excess of the limits provided by the fund. The fund shall have no liability to the insurer or its insured for any amount of coverage written in excess of its statutory authority.

In the event of loss under a policy providing excess coverage, the insurer shall be liable under the terms of its policy to its insured for any covered excess portion without regard as to whether or

The appointed hearing officer shall make findings of fact, conclusions of law, and recommendations to the commissioner. If the commissioner hears the dispute, he shall make findings of fact, conclusions of law, and enter an order.
